ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAMS.

HAVAS AGENCY

Paris, 11th.

The total number of ties at the elections is 255. These will be decided next Sunday. The Republicans hope to secure 220 out of the 255, if they succeed in uniting the many factions into which their party is split.

Vienna, 11th.

In spite of all assurances to the contrary, the relations between the Sublime Porte and the petty Balkan Governments are very strained. They are all busily engaged in active war preparations, and the Great Powers are at a loss what line of policy to adopt in the emergency.

Berlin, 11th.

An Imperial decree appeared to-day, appointing Prince Hohenlohe Stadtholter of Alsace and Lorraine. The new Governor leaves immediately to fill his post.

Paris, 12th.

The manifesto of the Central Conservative Committee, representing the united Imperialist and Royalist parties, appeared yesterday. The chiefs of the party, in this document, dwell at length on their electioneering success and advise their followers to hold their ground and vote like one man at the elections next Sunday.

PRESS TELEGRAMS.

Paris, 9th—The Conservative seats will not exceed 200. It is not probable that the result of the "ballotages" will be in their favor.

Cholera has completely disappeared from the Mediterranean provinces.

Constantinople, 8th—The Conference is the subject of much comment in high diplomatic circles. Not unfrequent hints are made to the unhappy events of 1877. Up to the present, however, the Powers are all of accord.

Madrid, 10th—The Spanish Government have refused to purchase the Argentine gunboat Patagonia, at present in construction at Trieste, although they had arranged with the Argentine Government for the purchase of the vessel.

Belgrade, 10th—The Servian Government have not given a satisfactory reply to the Porte's demand for explanations with regard to the warlike attitude of the former; in consequence of this circumstance the Turkish Ambassador has asked for an interview with King Milan to settle the question. The Bulgarians have crossed the Servian frontier and have pillaged several villages. A body of Gendarmes have been sent for the purpose of punishing the marauders.

Athens, 9th—The Ambassadors in the city have advised the Government to suspend its warlike operations.

Rome, 9th—Yesterday 104 fresh and 59 fatal cases of cholera occurred in Palermo

Rome, 10th—Yesterday 103 fresh and 58 fatal cases occurred in Palermo.

Paris, 9th—Government has received a despatch from Admiral Miot, who is at the head of the French troops in the Island of Madagascar, stating that an encounter took place between the French and the Hovas, in which the former lost 21 killed and wounded.

London, 9th—The Cabinet met to-day to discuss the Irish question.

Quebec, 10th—Captain Lawson, of the barque Pauline, during his trip from Cardiff to this port, witnessed a most curious phenomenon during a storm. A ball of fire appeared at the hull of the vessel and travelled for a few seconds all round her withoutinjuring anybody, and subsequently fell into the sea with a terrible noise.

London, 10th—Yesterday the colonial wool auctions were brought to a close, having begun on the 1st of September. Of the 340,000 bales for sale, 300,000 were disposed of. Prices, compared with previous auctions, show a fall ranging fram 5 to 10 o/o. The auctions were well attended, much animation and competition prevailing, at the sale of the Australian wools. The market is calm.

San Luis, 12th.—The Inscription has closed and shows a majority in favour of Dr. Juarez Celman, although the Rochistas and Irigoyenistas had mustered strong.

Montevideo, 12th—The Lamas question is now at end and has ceased to arouse further interest in the affairs of the Deputy, who will not resign his seat in the Chamber.

The rains that have fallen within the last few days have much improved the camps, and farmers are in high glee.

The improvements in the Pocitos roads are being rapidly carried out and will soon be completed. The tramway company have likewise improved their line, having laid down new rails. The bathing season will be inaugurated at the end of next month.

The rumors of a rising are not confirmed, and no alarm has been caused.

The report that Manuel Herrera y Obes would offer himself as a Presidential candidate is without foundation.

The Ateneo del Uruguay gives a 'fiesta literaria' to-day which promises to be a great success. Gold medals will be awarded to the best literary compositions.

The death is announced of Dr Perez Gomar, the Fiscal.

The Rajneri Opera company have met with a most decided success. La Ferretti appears to be the favorite.

The official papers contradict the report that a new loan was about to be issued.

Bagossi will leave for B. Aires next week; he has been very successful here.

Rosario, 12th—The greatest order was observed at the inscription yesterday. No news of importance.

A RETROSPECT.

Not even the "curso forzoso" cloud that hangs over the country can obscure the dazzling retrospect of River Plate progress since the 12th Oct. 1880. Yesterday President Roca completed his fifth Presidential year, and completed his pledged promise to maintain the country in peace and order. Another, and perhaps the most trying of all years, has yet to elapse before he retires from office, and let us all hope that on the 12th Oct. 1886, the country will be as peaceable as it is to-day.

The retrospect which General Roca's 5 years' term of office presents, is, perhaps, the most difficult subject a public writer in the Plate could attempt, since the reaction of our great progress has clouded the gorgeous sunset of one of the most brilliant administrations to be found in River Plate records; but as we have already stated, if Solon himself ruled the land the result could not be otherwise, after a period of such gigantic progress, in a country hitherto accustomed to march like a bullock-cart, and it is unjust and unfair to father on President Roca a crisis of which our prosperity and goa headism are the true parents.

Our history and our antecedents establish the fact, that to rule this country for 5 years in peace is no ordinary feat. More than a year ago everyone believed that we were on the eve of another rumpus such as 1880, and many still think that before General Roca leaves office we shall have a revolution; but we apprehend no such misfortune, on the contrary, we believe that this day twelve months, General Roca will retire from office, as his predecessors, with half the town accompanying him in procession to his house. The present great excitement that exists throughout the country should surprize no one, when we remember that we are approaching the Presidential elections, necessarily the most critical period in our political organization. In fact all this fuss and noise and hubbub attest the peoples liberty.

We have not now space or time to draw up a schedule of the extensions of our railways, the growth of our colonies, the increase of our estancias, our trade, commerce, and Immigration, since General Roca took office, but we think we are safe in the assertion that since 12 October 1880, no other country on the face of the globe, rivals the River Plate in its progress. Another such five years and we verily believe the population and wealth of the country will be doubled. Notwithstanding the check of "curso forzoso" we see our trade increasing, and new public works of the greatest magnitude begun. Most wonderful country indeed is the River Plate! All that it seems to need is peace, and with peace, spite of every check and every draw back, it goes ahead. President Roca's administration, notwithstanding all the efforts of contending politicians, has maintained peace throughout the land; every industry and enterprise has received his support. The fluctuations of trade, which affect all nations, must necessarily affect us; but so far the National Government has not been obliged to name a Special Commission to consider the causes of the depression of trade, nor have the courts to name judicial receivers to take over thousands of miles of bankrupt railways. Not enjoyment and not sorrow might well be inscribed over our situation. The River Plate to-day is immeasurably better off than many other countries; land is cheap, wages high, employment superabundant; there is a healthy hum of industry throughout the land; everything thrives and prospers, and when we compare the River Plate to-day to what it was when Gen. Roca entered office, we feel inclined to say to the General:

"Si quaeras monumentum circumspice."

VARIATIONS OF PRICE-LEVEL SINCE 1850.

Paper read at the British Association, Section F, at Aberdeen, Sept. 1885, by Michael G. Mulhall, F.S.S. Author of "The Dictionary of Statistics."

Iron and steel wares come next in importance, showing a heavy fall, thanks to the discoveries of science. The prices of pig iron in Great Britain and United States have been as follows:—

Shillings per Ton.

Year.	Great Britain.	United States.	Medium.
1841-50	68	134	101
1851-60	66	122	94
1861-70	59	123	91
1871-80	74	132	103
1881-84	52	98	75

This fall of 26 per cent. in the raw material is much less than has taken place in manufactured goods. Steel has come down 70 per cent. since the inventions of Bessemer and Siemens; that is, from £34 to £11 per ton. The average decline is 33 per cent.; that is to say, 40 shillings will now buy as much hardware as 60 shillings would have done in 1841-50; a saving of 192 millions sterling per annum.

Cotton goods may be judged by English prices, this country being the chief seat of the industry; and it is very remarkable that while raw cotton has risen 15 per cent. the price of calico has fallen 22 per cent., which is doubtless explained by improved machinery. The prices have been:

Years.	Cotton. Pence per lb.	Calico. Pence per yard.	Ratio. Raw Cotton.	Ratio. Calico.
1841-50	5·3	3·40	100	100
1851-60	5·9	2·90	111	85
1861-70	12·8	4·20	242	124
1871-80	7·4	3·00	133	88
1881-84	6·1	2·65	115	78

The cotton manufactures of all nations sum up a total of 302 millions sterling; the fall in price is therefore equivalent to 90 millions.

Wool and woollen goods have fallen very unequally, the former 43, the latter only 9 per cent. since 1860. viz.:—

Years.	Wool. Pence per lb.	Manufactures, Pence per yard. Carpets.	Flannel.
1851-60	21	32	16
1861-70	18	35	19
1871-80	14	34	18
1881-84	12	28	15

Years.	Ratio. Wool.	Manufactures.
1851-60....	100	100
1861-70....	86	114
1871-80....	67	109
1881-84....	57	91

The fall in wool is mainly owing to the great increase of Colonial, which now forms 45 per cent. of the world's clip, against 10 per cent in 1850.

Timber has fallen very heavily, from 80 shillings in the decade ending 1850 to 51 shillings per load in 1881-84.

Dairy products have risen, owing to the increased consumption per inhabitant all over Europe, the prices being as follows:—

Years.	Butter, per cwt. England.	Butter, per cwt. U.S.	Cheese, per cwt. England.	Cheese, per cwt. U.S.	Eggs of 4 nations, per doz.
1841-50	81	61	48	30	5·2
1851-60	82	90	50	39	5·7
1861-70	104	106	56	47	6·3
1871-80	110	104	56	52	7·6
1881-84	102	98	55	52	8·1

Years.	Ratio. Butter.	Cheese.	Eggs.
1841-50	100	100	100
1851-60	121	114	110
1861-70	148	131	121
1871-80	151	138	146
1881-84	141	137	155

There is, on the whole, a rise of 44 per cent.; that is, men pay now 340 millions for what would have cost 236 millions in 1841-50.

THE LUCAS GONZALEZ RAILWAY.

On last Saturday the Senate finally passed the Lucas Gonzalez Railway Bill, of which we have already given our readers the very fullest details The pith of this business is that Dr Lucas Gonzalez, on behalf of certain bankers and railway contractors, takes over the extensions of the National Government railways, which they continue to conclusion for a certain fixed price per kilom., payable by the National Government in 5 per cent. bonds at the firm rate of 80, and the contractors pay the interest and amortization of the bonds until the sections are finished and handed over to Government, after which the earnings of the railway are first applied towards the service of the bonds paid for such section, and in case of deficit the Government, out of the general revenue, makes good the amount.

Nothing could be more advantageous to this country than this new financial combination, that only became known to the public of the Plate last July, on the occasion of inaugurating the Santa Fé Colonies Railway, which has been constructed on this system.

Senator Febre, on the passing of this measure in the Senate last Saturday, said: 'I wish to record my vote in favor of this measure, although it does not altogether come up to my expectations, since my ambition is to see all our national works carried on by private companies. The present measure owes its creation to the difficulties the Government has experienced in raising funds for the works; and the last loans, according to the papers, have been negotiated on ruinously onerous conditions. With pleasure, therefore, I give my vote for this bill, since on this new system we avoid the dangers in electioneering times caused by the Government having under it so many railway employees. Furthermore, in accepting this proposal we give our vote in favor of the best and quickest way to finish our railways." The bill was then put to the vote and carried unanimously, which definitely settles this long-pending question.

Of more importance to the country is this Lucas Gonzalez Railway Bill that even the new loan; and, in fact, it matters little now whether the new loan will be passed or not, since one of the primary objects of the new loan was the continuation of the Tucuman Railway. Now the Government need have no further concern on the subject; the money is already provided without the necessity of sending the hat round to the London bankers. Whatever money the Government may require to pay off its indebtedness in London and the floating debt here, can be raised by a home loan, on far easier terms than those proposed by the London bankers.

The real import of this Lucas Gonzalez Railway Bill is the introduction of ten million nats. fresh capital into the country, without interest, commission or amortization until the railways are first built, concluded and handed over to the Government; and we readily agree with Senator Febre in his wise remarks. It would be better for the Government, better for the people, and better for the country at large if all the railways in the Plate belonged to joint-stock railway companies. We should like to know how Buenos Ayres would be to-day if the Great Southern Railway, with its five millions sterling of capital, belonged to the Government. Possibly the line would not be beyond Azul or Dolores. Governments, no matter how good or how powerful, can never compete with private companies in the line of railway building; and the sooner all our Argentine statesmen begin to view this matter in the same light as Senator Febre, the sooner we shall have railways running from all points and bringing into communication with the capital Trenquelauquen, Patagones, and General Acha, etc.

The Galileo's Mails.

Wednesday, September 14.

Telegraphing from Berlin last night, our Correspondent informs us that the Spanish reply to the German Note will probably not be delivered until Prince Bismarck's arrival from Varzin, which is expected in the next few days. Meanwhile negotiations between both Cabinets regarding their rival claims are suspended until the question of apology for the insult to the German arms is completely settled. The German Government, our Correspondent says, will continue to insist on submitting the main dispute to arbitration.

Our Madrid Correspondent informs us that much surprise and annoyance has been caused there by the announcement that England could not recognise the sovereignty of Spain over the Caroline and Pelew Islands. The Ministerial Press insinuates that a conflict will be averted by a protocol in which Germany and England will admit Spanish rights, and Spain will give them the same liberty for trade and facilities for navigation as in the Soulou Islands.

In informing us of the tone of the Austrian Press upon this question, our Correspondent at Vienna says that the Neue Freie Presse sneers at the Spanish subscriptions for ironclads, and says that with all their patriotic pride the Spaniards keep their pockets closed. In military circles the opinion is expressed that it would be very imprudent for Spain not to accept arbitration, as in case of war Prince Bismarck might look upon Cuba as a magnificent foundation-stone for German Colonies.

A telegram from our New York Correspondent states that the official time of the yacht race shows the Genesta to have been 16 min. 10 secs. behind the Puritan. The Genesta having cracked her masthead cap, the windward race has been postponed until to-day, when, says our Correspondent, it is generally hoped that there will be a stiff breeze, so that the sailing qualities of the English yacht may have a fair test.

Our Correspondent at Alexandria telegraphs that it is proposed by the Turkish delegate at the Sanitary Board there to impose full quarantine on arrivals from all Italian ports. This, if carried, our Correspondent points out, will seriously interfere with the Indian mail passenger traffic.

The Queen has conferred the dignity of a baronet upon the Right Hon. M. Morris, Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas in Ireland, and upon Mr J. P. Corry, M.P.; and the dignity of a knight upon Mr Roper Lethbridge, C.I.E.

Last night Mr Chamberlain, M.P., addressed a crowded meeting in St. Andrew's Hall, Glasgow, and met with an enthusiastic reception. He said he hoped the Liberal party would be returned with a strong majority capable of opposing any unnatural alliance which might be made, and that the question of disestablishment would not divide the sections of the party in the interest of the Conservatives. Disestablishment would no doubt occupy great attention at the elections, and, being, a conscientious Dissenter, he hoped to live to see Church and State separated, believing it to be to the interest of both. The land must, under certain conditions, be restored to the labourers, a better system of local government must be established, free education must be given, and then and not until then would the nation be happy and prosperous, and the people contented.

Mr Arthur Arnold, M.P., gave an address at Foresters' Hall, Clerkenwell-road, last night, and stated in detail the objects of the Free Land League, of which he is president. Mr H L W Lawson, Mr D H Payne, and Mr Henriquez also addreseed the meeting, amid much interruption, arising from several of the audience insisting on putting questions, and the meeting broke up in confusion.

Mr J Holms, M.P., addressing a meeting of the electors of the Central Division of Hackney last night, declared that the reform of the municipality of London, the improvement of the land laws and of county government, the modification of the House of Lords, the further regulation of procedure in the House of Commons, and the extension of self-government in Ireland, were cries enough for the Liberal party, and he emphatically protested against the separation of Ireland from England. A resolution in favour of Mr Holms, and of Mr Gladstone and the late Government, was passed.

The annual Congress of the Librarians of Great Britain, was commenced at Plymouth yesterday. A public reception was held at the Guildhall at noon, and the visitors were subsequently entertained at luncheon by the Mayor. Mr Macliver, M.P., expressed a hope that the free library system would be extended, and that the time would soon come when the education of our children would be free. The statement was loudly cheered.

An official notice, which will be found in another page, has been issued by the Post Office Department with respect to sixpenny telegrams. The new rate will come into force on the 1st of October.

The examination and award of commisions to the senior cadets at the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, took place yesterday.

At the meeting of the British Association at Aberdeen yesterday, Sir Joh Lubbock, in the Biology section, spoke to a large audience upon the subject of the intelligence of the dog. Discussions took place in the Geographical, the Economic, the Mechanical Science, and other sections.

Messrs. Tattersall's sale of blood stock at Doncaster commenced yesterday.

In the cricket match between Shaw's Australian team and Hall's England eleven at Bradford yesterday, Shaw's eleven scored 220 runs in their first innings, Bates making 93.

The annual regatta at Brighton took place yesterday.

In London last week 2,330 births and 1,221 deaths were registered. Allowing for increase of population, the births were 357, and the deaths 228, below the average numbers in the corresponding weeks of the last ten years. The annual death-rate per 1,000 from all causes, which had been 18·8, 17.5, and 15.8 in the three preceding weeks, further declined to 15.6 last week, a lower rate than in any week on record. The deaths included 3 from small-pox, 25 from measles, 16 from scarlet fever, 22 from diphtheria, 39 from whooping-cough, 1 from typhus, 12 from enteric fever, 1 from continued fever, and 62 from diarrhœa and dysentery.

At the Royal Observatory, Greenwich, the mean reading of the barometer last week was 29·56 in. The mean temperature of the air was 55·3 deg., and 2·3 deg. below the average in the corresponding week of the 20 years ending 1868. Rain fell on six days of the week, to the aggregate amount of 1·93 inches. The duration of registered bright sunshine in the week was 21·1 hours, against 24·0 hours at Glynde Place, Lewes.

At the Thames Police Court yesterday, Mr. J Hunter Watts, of West Hoathley, Sussex, treasurer of the Social Democratic League, was charged with causing an obstruction by addressing a crowd in West India Dock-road, Poplar, on socialistic subjects. Mr. Saunders fined the defendant 40s.

The Exchequer receipts from April 1 to September 12 amounted to £33,953,519, against £34,467,809 in the corresponding period of last year. The expenditure was £40,301,083 against £35,289,252. The balance in the Bank of England last Saturday was £995,865, and in the bank of Ireland £1 234,259.

The Stock markets, although not closing at their best, were firm yesterday. American securities were bouyant, in response to New York quotations, and Grand Trunk of Canada stocks advanced, except in the case of the Guaranteed Preference. British rails were irregular in tone. North British were very flat on dividend rumours. Foreign stocks were quist, the principal movements being in Mexican Old and Peru 6 per cents., the former advancing ¾, and the latter falling ⅝. Mexican Railway Issus were dull. At the Bank £15,000 in gold was received from Australia, and £10,000 withdrawn for India.

Dublin, Sept. 15.

Archbishop Walsh was to day presented with an address from the catholic commercial Club, in which reference was directly made to political questions, and which was apparently intended to draw from his Grace a declaration of his views. It expressed the joy of the Irish people on his Grace's appointment, and said the event had taken place at a time of singular importance in the history of the country, adding that while they might now look forward to the ordinary laws being administered in an impartial spirit, they might also anticipate that before long Irishmen would be permitted in a native Parliament to develop by wise legislation the resources of the country, and thus secure the contentment of the nation.

THE BRITISH ASSOCIATION.

Aberdeen, Sept. 14.

The palm for popularity is borne at the British Association by Sir John Lubbock, whose name in the programme of the Biology Section to-day sufficed to draw to that department one of the largest audiences of the whole meeting. Sir John chose for his topic this time the "Intelligence of the Dog." He invites from those who have leisure further information upon the mental powers of the canine race, and thinks it worth while that instead of confining ourselves for utilitarian principles to the business of making the dog understand us, we should attempt to make further progress in understanding the dog. He described to the section the progress he had made in comprehending the capacities of one of his own canine pets—his black poodle "Van." Reading it appears is one of this animal's accomplishments, Sir John has taught it to distinguish between different cardboards of the same size, on which are printed the words "water," "food," "out," "tea," "bone," and so forth. The dog tells his wants by selecting the proper cards. Sir John humorously adds that the words are spelt phonetically, "so as not to trouble" Van with our intricate spelling. Precautions were taken by changing the cards to prevent the dog identifying them by the scent. This intelligent poodle failed, however, after three months' patient instruction, to grasp the idea of matching colours. Sir John, unwilling to underrate canine intelligence, charitably suggests that Van may be colour-blind. He offers no apology, however, for his dog's limited arithmetical talent. He even suggests that where dogs are credited with ability to count they are really guided by some unconscious indication of their master, their quick perceptions making them most marvellous of thought readers. Van, with all his mental deficiencies, is cleverer than Lady Lubbock's Collie dog, which, with the example of Van before it, seems incapable of learning to read. Of course a topic of this sort sets a section talking easily, and for some time stories of dogs were in the air. The appetite for the marvellous was especially stimulated by the declaration of one gentleman that he knew of a dog being taught politics. It proved that the dog's political accomplishments consisted in his growling at the name of "Dizzy" and barking with delight when its master's name was called. The waggish narrator of this story added the moral that similar demonstrations at public meetings were often made with as little intelligence as those of the dog.

To our knowledge of East Central Africa additions were made in both the Geological and Anthropological Sections by Professor Henry Drummond and Dr. Robert Laws. The former destroys the hopes some people have formed of the coal deposits of Central Africa. These appeared to Professor Drummond to be unpromising both in quality and quantity. The geologists were much disappointed that some of the professor's fossils, the first he declared which had been found in the interior of Africa, had not arrived for their inspection. Dr. Laws told the anthropologists a mass of most interesting details concerning the tribes of Lake Nyassa, mentioning among other matters that while they bought their land from the chief they had to buy the tenant-right from the cultivator.

Some lively discussion occurred in the Economic Science Section on a proposal by Mr. John Corry, president of the Chamber of Shipping, advocating that the State should guarantee shipowners against war risks. Professor Leone Levi contented himself with adducing several substantial reasons against the proposal, but Dr. W. A. Hunter characterised it as the most barefaced proposal he had ever heard, declared that shipowners with bad ships or bad cargo would under such a system get their ships in the way of the enemy, and stigmatised the shipping class as the most dangerous in the community. To this a heated reply was obviously inevitable, and the president of the section calmed the reader of the paper by expressing his regret that strong expressions had been used by one speaker, and declaring that the economic grounds of the proposal had at least merited discussion. The diminution of casualties at sea has been under discussion in the Mechanical Science Section, and the Lord Advocate, who has been constant in his attendance at this section, has communicated the suggestion, though Sir James Douglass does not encourage it, that beams of light thrown on the water in the direction in which the ship's head is tending would help to lessen risk of collision, since, when the light beams of vessels cross each other, the steersman will see his danger.

The Geographers have to-day been strongly urging expeditions to the South Pole. Many members have been instructed and hospitably entertained to-day and yesterday by Mr. Nordenfeldt, of machine gun fame, who has here inaugurated an industry in which the Association members see the utilisation of what has hitherto been deemed waste in fish in the manufacture of food products. As the preliminary to substantial banquets the members have tried soups made from a basis of extract prepared from whales and other fish and have pronounced them very good. A second conversazione at the Art Gallery has concluded the business and pleasure of the day.

THE AMERICA CUP.

Philadelphia, Sept. 16th.

According to the corrected score, the Puritan sailed over the course yesterday in 6h. 6min. 5 sec., and the Genesta in 6h. 22min. 24 sec., the Puritan winning by 16min. 19sec.

Those on board of both yachts complained of the way in which the excursion steamers and tugs crowded round them, interfering with the wind, and also causing a "swash." When the Genesta had passed the judges' boat she was taken in tow. Sir R. Sutton shouted to the tug—"Take us alongside the Puritan." When she approached, all hands on board of her crowded the rail, and Sir R. Sutton said—"Now, men, give them a British hurrah." Three sturdy British cheers were forthwith given for the Yankee sloop, whose crew responded with repeated cheers for the English yacht, her owner and her crew.

After the Puritan reached her anchorage at Stapleton, Staten Island, a tug, bearing the members of the New York Produce Exchange, went alongside and threw on board a pan of baked beans—typical of the origin of the Puritans of Boston.

The Genesta was towed through the Narrows, receiving a salute from the guns of Fort Wansworth while passing.

The second race is postponed until to-morrow, the Genesta having cracked a yoke. Her masthead, moreover, needs repair.

Captain Carter, when asked about the race, replied—

"We have nothing to say. Those who saw it know as much about it as we do. The wind came in puffs, and was very uneven outside the lower bay. It was better outside. I could not tell where we made the fastest speed, or if we should have done better had the course been out at sea, with the breeze stronger. The steamboats took the wind at times, and were somewhat in the way."

The general opinion in New York is, that the Puritan developed better points than her rival, and that she has the best chance of winning the next race.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Sept. 4th

The electioneering work goes bravely on; the peppering on each side is prodigious; but the voters keep as cool as cucumbers. Jules Ferry, the leader of the moderate republicans, has wonderfully improved his chances there the last few days; he has spoken clearly and sensibly at Bordeaux. He has been above all aided by the violences of the Extremists—notably the madcap Rochefort. The opinion is spreading that the Communists and Anarchists must be kept in their place. It is the Tonkin impediments that weight's Jules Ferry; he states that the era of adventures, of land-grabbing, is past; for the future, France ought to be occupied with the work of "digesting" her takes. That means for her an expenditure of men and money, till she can export emigrants, and as cheap goods as England and Germany.

Rochefort's ginger-beer agitation over the alleged martyrdom of Olivier Pain by the English, may be regarded as played out. His informant, a Russian named Selikovitch, an inexperienced interpreter, is suspected as being told off for playing the role of helping to set France and England still more by the ears; his country might gain, but neitgher civilization nor the principals. People commenced at last to think of the diplomatic consequences that the foul language of Rochefort might produce, if English opinion resolved it had enough of the Russo-communistic coalition. It was thus that the Temps had the courage to call upon the common sense of the country to assert its dignity and decency. It is not the less deplorable, the abstention of the French press is not reminding Rochefort that a few facts, and less Billingsgate, would serve his latest fad better.

The Anglo-Chinese alliance is ranked as a powerful trump card for John Bull. With such an ally he will soon be able to dictate to all powers and principalities in the Far East. In opening up China by railway and telegraphs; in loaning her money and, above all, men and science to modernize her trade and industries; in taking in hand amelioration and progress of 350 millions of people capable of turning out an army of 20 millions of men, and a fleet not to be despised when officered by Anglo-Saxons, as will be her soldiers, England can smile that it is held at Russian aggression and imperial meetings. Japan is considered to have joined the Anglo-Celestial alliance. The event has diminished the interest felt in the mission of Sir H. D. Wolff. With Italy also for ally England say good observers, can afford to consult her own leisure as to quitting Egypt.

The funeral of Admiral Courbet was very effective in Paris, and the decorations at the Invalides as artistically beautiful as they were expressive. The brave old sailor now reposes in the vault of his family, at Abbeville. After life's fitful fever he sleeps well. Complaint is general at the comparative indifference displayed by the public, towards the four-score sailors who were draughted from the Admiral's ship to guard the remains of their commander to their final resting place. The opposition of all shades made immense capital out of Courbet's letters, denouncing the Ferry Ministry and the Deputies for their vacillating and indefinite policy. New letters from General de Negrier have been published, eulogizing all that Courbet condemned. At present the oppositions cry shame from the roof-tops, and demand the hero of the Tonkin war to be sent before a court-martial, for breach of discipline. What in the Admiral is but a choleric word, is in the general flat blasphemy.

Two young clerks in the Provincial Bank at Balcarce won 20,000 Nats in one of the lotteries last week. In all human probability it will prove their ruin

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Inscription on Sunday passed off without any row; but some of the Jueces de Paz are again in trouble There was no disturbance anywhere The ridiculous police order prohibiting anyone with a stick or umbrella from passing the church doors during the inscription gave rise to a deal of annoyance. We saw a subscriber in the hands of the Philistines opposite San Miguel church. His protests that he was not a voter, and only on his way to visit a friend ten yards down the street were vain; and it was quite a treat to see the look the policeman cast on his rather Gampish umbrella, as if it might contain dynamite. Our countryman had to walk round four squares to pay his visit, and he beguiled the way by some very strong remarks about Argentine elections. The following is the result of the inscription:—

With pleasure we state that Don Miguel Plaza Montero is much better and will soon be convalescent. This esteemed gentleman on receiving the news of his brothers death in Spain, got an attack in the head from which he is now recovering.

Havas announces that the Republican party in France expect to win by a sweeping majority at next Sunday's elections. There can be little doubt in this regard, as the Republican party will be roused to action by the unexpected results of the first elections They owe their partial defeat, first to dissensions in their own party, and second, and perhaps especially, to the feeling of security begot by 15 years' fruition of undisturbed victory. We see by the late London papers that the partial victory of the Conservatives, was not even dreamt of in the middle of last month.

The steamer Europa entered Montevideo yesterday with 500 emigrants on board, the mails come up by river steamer, and will be landed this morning.

Mr. Ledesma's fine quinta on the Flores road at Caballito was put up at auction on Sunday, the upset price being 30,000 m/n. The auctioneer only received one bid 31,000 m/n, which he declined to receive, so the auction resulted in nothing. Some lots alongside the Negrotto college in Caballito were also put up, but only three sold at very small prices, the auctioneers declined to continue the sale.

Application has been made to the Minister by the manager of the Pacific Railway, to open the line for public traffic from Chacabuco to Orellanos, which is the Picasa Station. Good news for our friends in Loreto and Venado Tuerto.

We regret to announce the death of Dr. Lopez's, child from a severe attack of diptheria. We tender to the distressed parents every expression of sympathy at their great loss.

It is most amusing to read of the difficulty between General Mansilla, and the Police about a walking stick. The police refused to allow the General to pass with his stick and the General protested; finally the matter was arranged.

The Colegio Americano which has flourished so long under the able direction of Miss Conway has been removed from its late modest home to splendid premises a square nearer the Plaza Victoria, in the same street.

Dr Pacheco, Minister of Hacienda, we are happy to say is much better, and is now progressing favorably; yesterday he was able to sign many documente connected with his Ministerio.

"Gallo" complains of the paragraph in this column on Thursday stating that because six cock-fights are to come off at the town of Colonia, the place cannot be respectable, He contends that for the same reason Buenos Aires is not respectable, as on every Sunday, Monday and Thursday cock fighting goes on at the cock pit in calle Venezuela. He defends the "sport" on the plea that the birds like it, and their natural instincts should be developed and so lead to the "survival of the fittest" in accordance with Mr Darwin's theory.

The weather cleared up completely on Sunday and was almost unpleasantly hot. The same yesterday. Weather prophets declare there will be another deluge before Guy Fawkes day.

Another burster in the stone paving line is preparing, The City Engineer wants the Lord Mayor's permission to double the "cuadrillas." We hope some English stones will be used, and not the huge boulders laid in the principal streets.

The latest news from La Plata is an invasion of rats, that are eating all they can lay their teeth on. It is curious to see this plague in a brand new city, the sub oil of which cannot be much contaminated as yet.

In speaking of the performance of a celebrated singer, a musical critic said—We hang on upon every note." A remarkable proof of the singer's power of "execution."

There is not the slightest sign of our stopping in the extravagant public outlay line. On Saturday the estimates for the National College were passed: $30,000 more than last year. There are seventeen Professors (of everything under the sun) for 700 boys. There was a very interesting exchange of ideas as to the meaning of the words "cursos libres," which, this being such a very exceptional country, are, of course, paid for here, although no provision for them is mentioned in the Budget.

The rain just stopped in time. There was a squeam and a scare at Barracas on Saturday, got up by a Sub Perfect, or a comisario, or somebody who started a false alarm that there was a flood at Alsina Bridge. Boats were sent; but when they got there they found there was no flood. The people were, nevertheless, rather frightened. The railway embankments are just as great a menace as last year. Not a blessed thing done to them since.

EDITOR'S TABLE

Some of our colleagues now indulge in mammoth Packet Editions. The Prensa was larger than the Times on Sunday—sixteen pages! We consider this a profound waste of time, type and "tin."

Our valued colleague La Republica, has got a hold of Marco Polo's writing desk, and means to send it to the Museum.

More of it. Caen stone is to be brought from France to face the houses on the new Boulevard. This is peculiarly like his Lordship.

Necochea's only paper is trying to write it up as a bathing place. What about the sharks?

There was a Zoophile gathering, with General Sarmiento at its head on Saturday, in Plaza Mayo, to see what some one has audaciously dubbed a new invention, to prevent a horse being maimed, in case it falls, by the shafts of the cart. It is really laughable to see how easily things as old as Methuselah pass as new inventions in the Plate. The thing in question is simply the prop that has been in use since Noah's time in most other parts of the world. The Zulus—beg pardon, the Zoos, however, all declared themselves delighted with it.

Mr Moyano, a very intelligent officer, who is now shivering somewhere within measurable distance of Cape Horn, has written to the Minister of the Interior, to beg him to write to the Minister of War and beg him to write to the Hydrographical Department, and order it to order the Topographical Department to send him some maps he wants. Why all this laughable red tape about a few miserable maps? However, it's quite as bad in England, so we'll 'shut up'

Major O'Donnell, Gefe Politico of Mendoza, has drawn up a new Manual of Rifle Practice for the army. There appears to be sharp competition in this line. Only last week it was our privilege to announce a similar book by another officer. As the Major apparently hails from either Cork or Galway, we naturally prefer hi bock.

Our Portuguese fellow-townsmen are in a medalling mood just now. They gold-medalled Dr Irigoyen on Friday, and did the same for the Lord Mayor on Saturday, for having 'given them a left' with their pantheon in the Recoleta Cemetery. By the way! The sooner said burial ground is closed and purified the better for the public health of the neighbourhood.

The restaurant at the Tigre station has been re-opened for the summer months.

Private charity is always ready-handed in Buenos Aires. The pious and estimable curate of Merced parish, Father Rasore, has just bought a house in Calle Cangallo, opposite the church, for a Women's House of Correction. His wealthy parishioners subscribed over a million paper dollars for the purpose.

The Rosario papers are becoming quite unreadable from the eternal politics with which they are filled. Meanwhile crime is going ahead up there like wildfire. The other night a lot of masked ruffians attempted to stop a tram-car and seize the guard's money bag; but the driver lashed his horses and succeeded in reaching the station in safety. The Rosario sheepfarmers have decided not to commence shearing till November. To try and stop the wholesale thefts and burglaries now going on the Chief of Police has ordered all the pawnbrokers not to receive even a shocking bad hat, or pair of toeless boots in pledge unless accompanied by a police certificate that they have been come by honestly. No wonder crime is rife in Rosario. In the jail there is a ruffian who is in for wilful murder, yet does a roaring business by advancing money to the policemen and warders, on the security of their pay, at an enormous shave. What prison discipline!

The site selected for the new British Cemetery at Montevideo is at the Buceo.

The works on the tramway from Saavedra to Las Conchas will be commenced next week.

The Continental Exhibition again! In Rio there was a grand jollification last month at the distribution of a shipload of medals won at this inextinguishable Exhibition. The Fluminenses seem to think the joke quite fresh, and evidently are unaware that every exhibitor at this never-to-be-forgotten Show won as many medals as he liked to cart away. Some there were who point blank refused a prize of any kind, fearing their trade would be destroyed by such a highly dubious distinction.

This day twelvemonths ahead the new President of the Argentine Republic will eat his first breakfast as such. Who will be the man? Only Zadkiel can tell, and we cannot find a word about it in the seer's Almanack. Moore was also a good prophet, but we believe he's dead.

Why does not some enterprising genius get up a few public pic-nics for the Spring months? In Canada this mode of enjoyment is most popular, and pays splendidly.

Some papers say that Colonel Latorre went down to Montevideo on board the Villarino, incog. to see his sick children. There is no reason why he should hide himself, so far as politics go.

The ex-Justice of Peace of Balvanera parish was let out of jail yesterday after a week's experience of it.

They had such smashing hail in Mercedes last week during the "temporal" that a lot of windows were broken and dozens of horses stampeded in the street.

That favourite artiste Preziosi will be out here with an Italian opera company for Ciacchi on November 15th.

Our esteemed colleague the Union calls attention to some unmentionable capers of a member of the Education Board of Buenos Ayres province, and says it "could a tale unfold"; but won't.

Monsieur Guyot wants to be allowed to make La Plata beautiful for ever by paving it with wood. Better wait till drainage works are first made.

They had a four-seconds earthquake in Salta last week. Such a truly 'mesquino' shock as this does not give people time to get frightened properly, and there is, consequently, no fun.

The police "hauled" a quack on Saturday for killing a woman by giving her the fat of a black hen to use as ointment for a tumour. It turned out however that this very harmless specific had nothing to do with it, as the woman had died of consumption. While the quack was in the Comisaria, the place was crammed with Italians, mostly women, begging the Commissary to let him out, as he had cured them and their children and relatives hundreds of times. One big Genoese carter, caused a roar of laughter by saying (First rolling out the name of a well-known Californian city) "Yes, bad luck to him ("Maldetto" !) he cured my mother-in-law three times."

An amusing anecdote is told, by an inhabitant of Kinderhook, of Thoma H. Benton when the guest of Mr Van Buren at one of those famous dinner parties for which "Lindenwald,, was noted in its palmy days. After the dessert had been served, finger bowls were brought in, and were viewed with some suspicion on the part of one or two of the guests. When dinner was over Mr Benton said to a friend—"I observed Mr Van Buren immerse the tips of his fingers in one of those little glass bowls and wipe them daintily on his napkin, but I just rolled back my sleeves and took a good, plain Republican wash.,,—Brooklyn Magazine.

Important Notice.

I hereby advise the public that I have established a Gymnasium Institute at Calle Florida 406 where I also apply the MASSAGE SYSTEM as studied and practiced at Dr. KELLGREN'S well known institute in London.

This system has given the most surprising results in curing chest and lung complaints, and all maladies caused by the kidneys and joints, and in any way connected with the nervous system. Thus the celebrated SYSTEM of MASSAGE is recommended as a certain cure for rheumatism, asthma, undeveloped muscles, paralysis, disorders in the digestion and in the circulation of the blood, etc., etc.

I have also a special class for the development of the body and muscles.

The following is the time-table I have arranged for the application of the Massage System:

For Gentlemen 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

For Ladies 12½ to 2 p.m.

Consultation hours—11.30 a.m. to 12.30.

Patients can also make arrangements for the application of the Massage System at their own residences.

ON 'CHANGE

October 12th, 1885

Gold	41½ o/o prem.
Cedulas E	81½
Cedulas F	81½
Cedulas G	85

The gold market opens this week with a firm tendency and a steady demand. The speculation, however, shows no signs of revival and affairs drag in the hall. About one hundred thousand gold dollars were sold this morning at the ring at 41 to 41½ o/o. Two hundred thousand were sold for the end of the month at 40 to 40½, the market closing at 40.40 o/o. Small amounts were sold for November and December at 39½. About four hundred thousand dollars were sold during official hours.

The Cedula G market gave way this morning under the heavy supply of the stock. Over one hundred thousand were sold cash at 86 to 85, closing rate. Sixty thousand were sold for the end of the month at 85½-½. At the rate the Mortgage Bank is throwing this fresh stock on an indifferent investing market, prices will fall still lower. Series E ruled firm at 81½; a few thousand were sold for cash and for to-morrow. Series F was both dull and weak to-day. Eight thousand changed hands for cash t 81½-½. Nothing was reported in National Bank stock. Speculation rules dull both in gold and stocks at the present moment.

A heavy taker has entered the exchange market, making a clean sweep of bills. Fair amounts have been passed at 46⅞ to 47d. Rates to-day, however, ruled very weak. Credit paper is offering at 46¾d.

The money market is easy for paper and discount rates shew no alteration; but the market for gold rules very hard and rates outside are quite nominal, as none of the banks will let go gold.

Another score of new members put in an appearance in the hall to-day. Their numbers are growing so fast, that the hall will soon be to small for the crowd that gathers every afternoon.

There is a rumor in the market that the Board of the Provincial Bank intends drawing for the R.M.S. Neva. We would advise both State banks to join and help the exchange market by drawing freely, as the out-look for the moment is anything but pleasant. Gold is going out of the country very fast and this will probably the heaviest specie export month on record, if the Banks do not interfere.

The Orenoque left to-day with a fair list of passengers and about £60,000 in gold coins of all kinds. All the rubbish gold goes by the French steamers.

Woolbuyers are of opinion that the late heavy rains will much improve the condition of the wools of the new clip. They state that the few samples that have been sent in up to the present are irregular in quality and not much to speak of. This accounts for the apathy of the market.

We see by Mr. Latzina's trade figures for the nine months that the value of sheepskins exported is less this year than last, although there is a considerable increase in the quantity sent forward.

The Forced Currency Bill was sent back for revision to the Deputies this afternoon. The fate of the Bill and its IVth clause will be decided in the next two days.

The steamer Europa and Provence have arrived in the Plate with 950 emigrants from mediterranean ports. The cargo steamer Wilhem will leave the Riachuelo to-morrow with goods for Rosario. The J B Say is expected in Campana to-morrow from Rosario with a cargo of grain The mails of the Provence and Europa will be up to-morrow morning in the Minerva. Holbein sails to-morrow for Southampton direct. The Niger is expected to-morrow.

The harvest of the Northern Santa Fé colonies promises such an abundant yield, that the railway, it is feared, will not be able to meet the demands of traffic and there is som talk about constructing a double track.

The Ville de Montevideo must undergo four days' quarantine at the Mount.

It is calculated that there are at present in the Esperanza Colony, of Santa Fé, 108 threshing machines with engines, representing a capital of £100,000. To work these, 108 mechanics, 216 firemen, and 2,726 men are required.

Mr. Domingo Frias, the well-known breeder, has sold to Mr. C Diehl, the bull Nelson for 1000 $m/n. The bull Comet has been sold to Mr F. Acevedo for 1500$. Both animals were born and bred in Mr. Frias's great farm.

A few "acopiadores" have started for the South to inspect flocks and buy wool.

Dr. Pacheco, we are glad to hear, is better, but still confined to bed. Two medical advisers are attending him, and it is probable that he will be able to attend the Government House till next week.

The Provincial Government has decided to extend the Western Railway from Saladillo to General Alvear district.

Mr. Wm. Gowland sold yesterday the fine quinta of the Ezeiza testamentaria in Lomas de Zamora for 25,000 $m/n. Buyer, Mr. A. Bonorino.

The fine mill of the Tunas colony is reported sold for 86,000 $m/n. Buyer, supposed to be an English merchant of this city.

Two hundred immigrants from the Matteo Bruzzo entered the Asilo yesterday where there are at present over three hundred men, women, and children.

The Salado river has risen considerably, but no fears of any extensive floods are entertained as the weather has cleared up.

Advices from the Banda Oriental state that it has rained all over the country, and that the season is most satisfactory, in spite of the losses sustained in cattle during winter. Farmers expect a splendid harvest.

It is said on 'Change that the Provincial Bank has not discounted a farthing since the beginning of the month.

Mr. Bernabe Quesada has rented nine leagues of land in the Loberia district at the rate of $50,000% per league per annum.

The Meteoro, on her way from Campana to Rosario, last Friday, was caught in a gale and lost her helm. She dropped anchor in front of Las Hermanas.

The news from Juarez is that some enterprising Italians and Frenchmen are starting vineyards on the hills in that Southern district, and peanut plantations.

Fat bullocks are fetching 6c to 7c $m/n in Mendoza for consumption. Four-year old novillos are quoted at 40 $m/n, and cows 25 to 30 $m/n.

Messrs Bullrich sold yesterday the Rynolds quinta for 13,800 $m/n, furnished. Buyer, Souza Ruiz. The house in the Calle Artes, advertised by the same auctioneers, was sold for 30,000 $m/n. Buyer, Mr Demaria. The quinta in Moron fetched 17oo $; buyer, J. Kiernan.

Ten thousand American hides were sold in the Mount to-day at 71 to 72 rls.

The gold market rose very rapidly during afterhours, under the pressure of the demand for cash. The squeeze in the market is such that if the bulls were to enter ring the tomorrow and buy half a million dollars for cash, the premium would certainly go near 5c. This great scarcity of gold is becoming a momentous question. About fifty thousand dollars only were bought cash this evening, but this sufficed to push the market from 41⅓ to 42½. Over one hundred thousand were sold for the end of the month at 40 to 41⅓. The market closed with sellers at 41½ for the 30th.

The Holbein leaves to-morrow with the following cargo:—

2,000 salted ox hides
1,900 do horse hides
33 pieces do
1,976 dry hides
150 bags criedblood
3,505 bags cereals
739 bales skins
374 salted hides from Parana
4,200 bags maize do.

She leaves direct for Antwerp and Liverpool.

The Rosse is posted to leave on the 14th.

The Handel brings Liverpool dates to the 13th inst.

Messrs Jackson and Cowes, brokers, made an important sale to-day, property corner of Paseo Colon and Chile, 33x33, for 18,000 m/n. The same brokers have a large number of cattle in the South for sale.

New wools are now coming in more freely, but the market looks as black as night. One lot 800 ar. new wool, no offer, sent to deposit; 4 other lots from 300 to 600 ar. each also unsold and will be deposited.

Six hundred arrobes were sold in the Once at reserved price, and 260 arrobes in the South fetched $89½.

We have received a note from the Montevidean agents of the steamer Hermes, informing us that the wreck has not been sold and that the small steamer Fortuna is engaged saving the cargo. There is no foundation to the report that the wreck had been sold for $2,000.

DONTINA.

How vain the loving darts that fly
From e'en the most bewitching eye.
Unless the teeth are pure and bright,
And ever keep a snowy white.
If you would save your teeth from harm
In Dontina you'll find the charm.

Diamonds and Pearls.

Eyes bright as diamonds should be supplemented by teeth white as pearls, and this latter element of beauty can be secured by using Dontina.
